Thank you for your enquiry.

The role of our website is to publish a complete set of the judgments which the Supreme Court has approved for publication on this website.

Unfortunately, that means that we are not allowed to decide which judgments should be published or to change the official text of the judgments in any way, however you are able to make an application to the court to do so.

If you wish to have public access to any judgment restricted, you will need to contact the registry of the relevant court with your enquiry. If the court determines the publication of this judgment is to be restricted, the court will direct us accordingly. The website address for the Supreme court registry is - <https://www.courts.qld.gov.au/courts/supreme-court/supreme-court-registry> and their number is 1800 497 117

You may also wish to make your own enquiries about whether the judgment is content that Google may agree to remove from its search results. For more information see: <https://support.google.com/websearch/answer/2744324/?hl=en>

I hope this is of assistance and I am sorry we can't help further.

Kind regards,
Ksenja

TO:
The Incorporated Council of Law Reporting for the State of Queensland

Regarding the judgement you publish at: <https://archive.sclqld.org.au/qjudgment/2020/QDC20-012.pdf>

The judgement contains material that is:

- factually wrong; and
- is wrongly false and defamatory of my character; and
- breaches sub-section 25(b) of the Human Rights Act 2019 QLD.

The reasons for that are published at:

<https://DistrictCourt.report>

AND

<https://human-rights.report/index.html#slider2-8>

I am requesting that you immediately remove from publication, this false and defamatory material.

Yours faithfully

Gordon Craven
